2nd July 2018

Dear parents

Y12 Induction Day – Thursday 30th August

I am writing with regard to this year's Sixth Form Induction Day, which will take place on Thursday 30th August. The purpose of the day is for all Year 12 students to meet with the Sixth Form Leadership Team, their tutor, fellow tutees and to have an introductory overview of the Sixth Form. Please find enclosed the itinerary and note that the dress code for this day is school uniform.

You will notice that parents are invited to the Sixth Form Centre from 1.30pm for coffee and to say "hello" to the Sixth Form tutor. This is then followed by an important briefing about Year 12, the initiatives and support offered by the Sixth Form and an overview of the key dates. We also plan to have a further coffee morning for parents in mid-September and there will be a Higher Education Evening in early November where we will talk more formally about the university application process, principally to the UK and the USA.

I look forward to meeting you and the students on Induction Day and working with you over the course of what, I hope to be, a most enjoyable and fulfilling two years in the Sixth Form. In the meantime, I wish you and the Year 11 students a most restful summer break.

Please do not hesitate to email me if you have any questions.

Yours faithfully

Bobby Trivic
Head of Sixth Form
